

April 27, 2023 Quiz

1. What are some risks associated with over watering a lawn? Which comment is not true.

Answers

1. Lawns may develop a shallow root system and become more dependant on regular watering
2. Lawns may become more susceptible to diseases
3. Lawn grasses may flower too frequently
4. Causes roots from nearby trees to compete with the lawn

2. Which soil type would be considered optimal for growing a lawn?

Answers

1. Clay based
2. Sandy based
3. Loam based

3. Which is considered the ideal times to water your lawn?

Answers

1. Hottest part of the day
2. At night
3. Does not matter
4. Early morning or early evening

4. Which group of fertilizers feeds the soil?

Answers

1. Organic fertilizers
2. Synthetic fertilizers

5. What is the definition of a weed?

Answers

1. A plant that has grown from seed
2. Any plant that is growing in an unwanted place
3. A biennial flower

6. What can be the reason why skunks and or raccoons damage a lawn?

Answers

1. They are eating the roots of the grass
2. They are burying seeds to dig up later
3. They are looking for soil born insects to feed on